

HazMat Advanced Technician

Course Description

This course will cover requirements for annual hazmat refresher training as well as advanced mitigation and suppression techniques. Participants will be able to identify hazard materials, know the proper incident safety requirements, and understand how to safely deal with hazardous material leaks in order to protect the public and the environment.

Certification Information

Class Notes

Hours	Cost
16	$390