

Sponsors & Tuition Exemption

Sponsors are trusts, government agencies, or other organizations who are willing to pay all or a portion of a student's educational expenses. When prior written notice of a sponsor's intent to support a student has been received, the University will bill the sponsor for approved charges rather than require payment from the student.

Transfer of your charges to a sponsor's account will be permitted only when specifically authorized in writing by the sponsor. Charges rejected or unpaid by the sponsors for any reason are the responsibility of the student along with possible late payment charges. Questions regarding sponsor billing should be directed to the Office of Bursar Operations at bursar@lsu.edu.

PM-12 states that the provisions of the Tuition Exemption policy do not apply to specialized, self-supported education programs. Therefore, the degree programs offered through LSU Online are not eligible for the tuition exemption benefit for LSU employees.
